MARCH, 2025

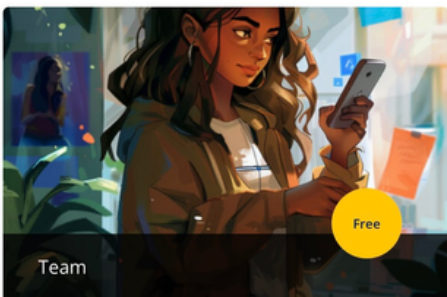

We are piloting!

In March and April 2025 the CyberBuddy consortium is launching the piloting of our digital escape rooms. We will work with students from Bulgaria, Portugal, Italy, Greece and Ireland and will collect valuable insights. If you're a secondary school student, you can be part of this exciting experience! Enroll now to test our innovative, engaging, and educational escape rooms and help us shape the final versions!

About our digital escape rooms

We have delivered 18 digital escape rooms each focusing on a different cyberbullying scenario. We explore topics like:

- Online harassment
- Hate speech and discrimination
- Sharing location unintentionally
- Cyberstalking
- Impersonation and identity theft

Each escape room scenario is crafted to immerse students in real-life situations, promoting critical thinking and problem-solving skills while emphasizing the importance of online safety and respectful digital interactions.

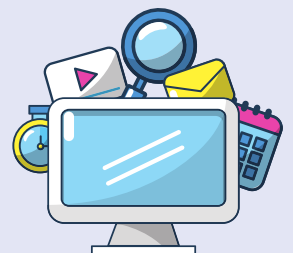

Spread of Rumours and False Information

Tanya comes across a shocking post online about her friend Alex.

 E-Book coming soon!

We are also finalizing our CyberBuddy e-book, a resource packed with essential information on online safety to help students navigate the digital world safely. Stay tuned for its official release!

 Videos in production

We are currently producing two educational videos, which will soon be available to complement our escape rooms and e-book. These videos will bring three different perspectives: the perpetrator, the victim, and the bystander.

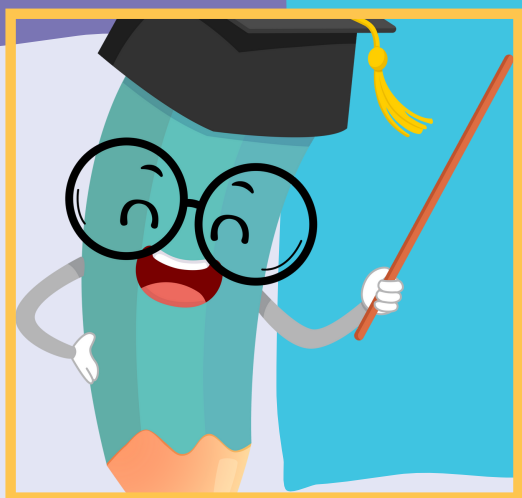

What's Next? Developing our “How to Raise a CyberBuddy” Guidelines

Our guidelines for teachers and parents will provide practical advice on identifying, preventing, and addressing cyberbullying in schools and at home. We will explore themes like:

- How can I tell if a student is being cyberbullied?
- When and how should I intervene in a cyberbullying situation?
- How can I tell if my child is a cyberbully?
- What's my responsibility as a parent in preventing cyberbullying?
